

INVITATION: Community Legal Training: No Recourse to Public Funds

Funded by the Northumberland Park Partnership Board

Date: Thursday 1st February 2018 Time: 9.30am - 1pm

Venue: Selby Centre, Selby Road, Tottenham, London N17 8JL

What is the training about?

Some residents of Northumberland Park ward face No Recourse to Public Funds (NRPF) restrictions. This session will help supporting organisations and individuals understand how to use the law to help them.

In the training session you will learn how to:

- ◇ Use the Children Act 1989 to help 'no recourse' families;
- ◇ Use the Care Act 2014 to seek support for 'no recourse' adults;
- ◇ Help 'no recourse' young people leaving care to access local council and other support;
- ◇ Help asylum seekers to access Asylum Support;
- ◇ Help victims of trafficking access local council and other support.

Who should attend?

This course is aimed at intermediaries - individuals and organisations who work with people living in Haringey's Northumberland Park wards - such as refugee organisations, faith organisations, asylum seeker support groups, community groups, local advice agency staff and volunteers, local councillors and anyone who regularly helps people in the Northumberland Park area subject to 'no recourse to public funds' restrictions.

Who will deliver the training?

Wilsons Solicitors specialises in immigration law, family law, and public law (challenges against the government). Wilsons has been based in Tottenham since 1989 and is a local law firm that believes in the goodness of Tottenham and actively promotes positive images of our community. In 2017, Wilsons was a finalist in several categories of the Legal Aid Lawyer of the Year Awards. Wilsons is delivering this training in partnership with the Haringey Law Centre, Brighter Futures and North London Partnership Consortium.

THE SELBY TRUST
Many Cultures, One Community

Places are limited, so please book as early as possible by emailing

Miranda@HaringeyLawCentre.org.uk or call 07957 396 321